UNSEEN PASSAGE: EXAMPLE FOR PRACTICE

Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions.

Arun was twelve years old. One day when he was returning home from the school, he saw a cow sitting under the tree on the roadside. The cow was in sad mood. Arun opened his tiffin. There were some laddus and roties in it. Arun gave roties and laddus to the cow. The cow ate up roties and laddus quickly.

“Now the cow will be happy,” Arun thought. Arun was surprised to see that the cow was still looking sad. Arun went closer. He saw that there was a wound in the cow's leg. Arun quickly ran to home and brought the first-aid box. He came back to the cow. He applied some medicine on the cow's leg and tied the bandage too. “Goodbye dear cow,” said Arun and went home.

Q2. Read the passage and answer the questions.

The old man was puzzled by the voice. He said, "This is a strange piece of wood as this is a talking piece of wood. What shall I do with it? I think. I'll make it into a puppet." He set to work, and as the puppet boy took shape, the old man said, "He must have a name. I will call him Pinocchio." As soon as he finished making the eyes, the carpenter was amazed to see them move. Before the mouth was made, it began to laugh. "Stop laughing!" the old man said.

It did stop, but as soon as his back was turned, it put out its tongue. And its nose grew long.
